

WEC Energy Group, Inc.
Board of Directors

Compensation Committee Charter

Approved: October 21, 2021

PURPOSE

The principal purposes of the Compensation Committee (Committee) are to (i) identify through succession planning potential executive officers of WEC Energy Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively “the Company”) and (ii) provide a competitive, performance-based executive and director compensation program that enables the Company to attract and retain key individuals and to motivate them to achieve the Company’s short- and long-term goals. The Committee shall report all significant findings to the Board.

The Committee shall perform its committee functions for all WEC Energy Group, Inc. subsidiaries that are registered companies pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more independent directors who are periodically appointed by the Board. Members shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and for such term or terms as the Board may determine. One of the directors shall be appointed Committee Chair for a term to be determined by the Board. In the event the Committee Chair is unable to serve as Chair for a specific meeting, he/she shall designate one of the Committee members to preside. The Committee shall meet not less than twice per year.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Compensation Philosophy and Committee Practices

- Determine and periodically review the Committee’s compensation philosophy.
- Review and determine the compensation and benefits to be paid to the executive officers and oversee the compensation and benefits to be paid to other officers and key employees.
Review and compare compensation components and the benefits being provided to executive officers of companies with which the Company is competing for executive talent.
- Establish the total compensation package for the CEO. Set annual and long-term performance goals for the CEO, annually evaluate the CEO’s performance against such goals and determine compensation adjustments based on whether these goals have been achieved.
- Review and keep apprised of key market trends in non-employee director compensation and recommend changes as appropriate to the Board to engage, attract, and retain quality directors.
- Review and take into consideration the results of each advisory stockholder vote on compensation of the named executive officers (“Say-on-Pay”) when determining future compensation policies and practices.
- Annually assess whether any risks arising from the compensation program of the Company are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Elements of Officers' Compensation and Benefits

- Base Salaries. Annually review and adjust, if necessary, executive officers' salaries principally based on a comparison of each officer's salary to comparable competitive positions and the individual executive officer's experience, responsibilities and performance.
- Incentive Compensation. Administer, periodically review and approve significant changes to the Company's executive incentive compensation plans, and make recommendations to the Board, as needed.
- Determine overall scope of participation in the incentive plans and which executive officers shall participate in the plans. Determine the overall scope and weighting of performance measures and target award levels under the plans and the types of stock incentive compensation to be provided under the plans.
- Determine each executive officer's award under the incentive plans. Determine the aggregate incentive compensation awards for all participants in the plans as a group.
- Establish, review, and adjust as needed, the guidelines for ownership of Company stock by executive officers.
- Benefits. Annually review and adjust, as needed, the benefit package being offered to officers to ensure that the benefit package assists with attracting, retaining and motivating officers.
- Perform such duties and responsibilities as may be assigned to the Committee under the terms of the Company's benefit plans.

Non-Employee Directors' Compensation and Benefits

- Annually review and adjust, as needed, the non-employee directors' compensation and benefit package to ensure that the package assists with attracting, retaining and motivating directors.
- Periodically, consider the Company stock ownership levels of directors.

Management Succession Planning

- Establish policies and principles for CEO selection and performance review, as well as policies regarding succession in the event of an emergency or the retirement of the CEO.
- Review the Company's plans for leadership and succession planning of executive officers. Review organizational changes that have a significant impact on the Company or its business.

Human Capital Management

- Periodically review and assess the Company's strategy for human capital management initiatives.

Communications to Stockholders

- Ensure that stockholders are adequately and accurately informed of the Committee's decisions. As part of this role, the Committee shall review and discuss the Compensation Discussion and Analysis with management, and based upon such review and discussion recommend to the Board of Directors its inclusion in the Company's proxy and information statements and annual reports on Form 10-K in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

- Produce the Compensation Committee Report as required by the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement.

Annual Performance Evaluation

- Produce and provide to the Board an annual performance evaluation of the Committee. The evaluation shall compare the performance of the Committee with the requirements of this Charter. Recommend to the Board any improvements to the Charter.

Compensation Consultants and Other Advisers

The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain, terminate and obtain the advice of a compensation consultant, independent legal counsel or other adviser to assist it in the performance of its duties, but only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to the adviser's independence from management, including those specified in Section 303A.05(c) of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual. The Committee shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any adviser retained by the Committee, and sole authority to approve the adviser's fees and the other terms and conditions of the adviser's retention. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any adviser retained by the Committee.

Other Matters

- The Committee shall also be responsible for any other matters as may from time to time be requested by the Board of Directors and/or the Chief Executive Officer.
- The Committee may, in its discretion, delegate all or a portion of its duties and responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.
